

May 19-21, 2025
Hilton Cincinnati Airport, Florence, KY 41042

Greetings,

The Kentucky Professional Firefighters will be holding their 2025 Biennial Convention on May 19-21, 2025 in Florence KY. This event will bring firefighters from across the state to train, exchange information and reconnect with old friends and colleagues.

The Independence and Florence Firefighters are jointly hosting the convention and are looking for assistance in putting on a first class event for our attendees, retirees and other firefighters from the Greater Cincinnati area.

We are anticipating having 100 attendees with many more people being invited to different events during our convention.

We have put together a sponsorship package that is competitive and will maximize getting your message out while supporting firefighters.

Bronze Sponsor - $500
